

THE BEACHES OF ST VALERY

A PLAY BY STUART HEPBURN

THE WILD FAMILIES
A PLAY, A PIE
& A PINT

First performed as
A Play, A Pie & A Pint
at Òran Mór

ÒRAN
MÓR
MORE THAN
JUST A GREAT BAR

WATCH OUR EXCLUSIVE LIVE SCREENINGS

#STVALERY80 LEARNING MAIN EVENT : POPPYSCOTLAND FACEBOOK LIVE!
THURSDAY 11TH @ 8PM, FRIDAY 12TH @ 3PM JUNE 2020

#StValery80 Learning Activity Card 2
Daily Activity Idea for Pupils / Homeschoolers 10+

THE BEACHES OF ST VALERY

A PLAY BY STUART HEPBURN

A great introduction for everyone, especially young people, to the incredible story of the surrender of the 51st Highland Division at St. Valery in 1940.

Watch this incredible theatrical event live at 8pm on 11th June & 3pm on 12th June.

After watching the play, have fun answering these questions with your classmates, friends or family.

1

What did Callum and Jo do before they joined the army?

2

Who were the men in the 51st Highland Division?

3

After the 51st are captured at St Valery Sergeant McGregor says he has 'thirty children'. Who is he referring to?

4

On the way to a Prisoner of War camp, a young woman throws Callum a parcel, giving him a dilemma. What was it? What might you have done if you faced this dilemma?

5

What happens to Callum after he meets the MacClean family?

6

Why is Callum's younger brother an important character in the play?

7

What was your favourite moment from the play? Share your thoughts with your partner.

8

Why do you think it is important for young people to watch this play?

9

To read more real-life accounts by St. Valery escapees click here: 51hd.co.uk/history/valery\_1940